Groundwater Awareness Week Reminds Regulated Entities about Wellhead Protection Plans

Millions of Kentucky citizens get their water from groundwater sources, so protecting groundwater resources is vital to providing clean, safe drinking water. Groundwater Awareness week is a good reminder that wellhead protection is a fundamental component to providing good water...Continue reading

Kentucky Presses EPA to Recognize Significant Air Quality Improvements in Northern Kentucky

On March 10, 2016, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) notified the Energy and Environment Cabinet of its “finding of failure to submit” a state implementation plan to address the primary 2010 SO₂ National Ambient Air Quality Standard (NAAQS) for the Northern...Continue reading

State Paper Recycling Program Keeps Waste Paper Out of Landfills, Ensures Safety of Sensitive, Shredded Documents

Running thousands of state government programs in the Commonwealth of Kentucky means generating tons and tons of paper. The Kentucky Government Recycling Section (KGRS) State Office Paper Recycling Program works hard to make sure as much as possible that paper generated...Continue reading
